

What does US budget support do for Ukraine?

The United States, along with its allies, has provided critical budget support to Ukraine, ensuring continuity of government and civilian services as Ukrainians try to survive the winter.

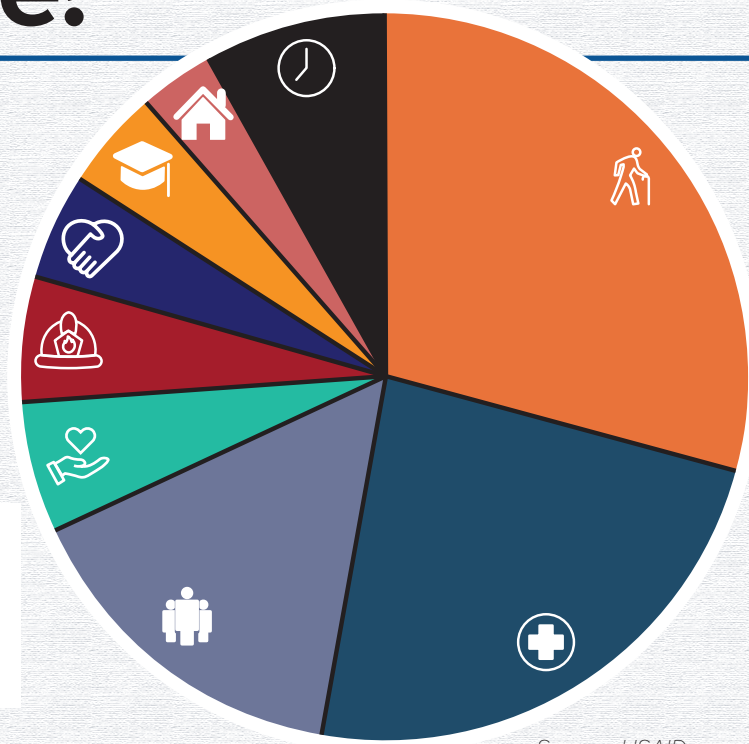

Here's how US support breaks down.

Total for Ukraine: $8.5 Billion

Budget support in context

US budget support has amounted to less than 15% of Ukraine's total budget

Source: USAID
As of October 21, 2022

Categories of Support

PENSIONS

$2.5 billion—to cover 9.8 million people's pensions

FIRST RESPONDERS

$472 million—to cover salaries of first responders

HEALTHCARE

$2 billion—to cover critical healthcare services and regular patient care

IDP ASSISTANCE

$406 million—to cover assistance to 1.3 million internally displaced people

CITIZEN SERVICES

$1.3 billion—to cover continuity of government and services to citizens

EDUCATION SALARIES

$385 million—to cover salaries for 618,000 school and university workers

SOCIAL ASSISTANCE

$487 million—to cover social assistance to 240,000 low-income families and 480,000 people with disabilities

HOUSING SUBSIDIES

$281 million—to cover housing subsidies to 1.6 million households

PENDING DISBURSEMENT

$669 million—still pending

Atlantic Council

EURASIA CENTER

RAZOM